

2013 DIANET International School

Interdisciplinary Methods for the Sustainable Development of the Danube Region

DRAFT PROGRAMME

Saturday April 13th:

Arrival time in Gorizia: no later than 4.30 pm;

Welcome speeches and introductory lecture, setting up of 6 working groups.

During the week, each group will select a topic and draft a research project for which they shall also prepare a mock funds-request.

Sunday April 14th:

Scientific excursion to the Northern Isonzo Valley, Slovenia.

Topics: paleoethnology, historical geography, water resources, geomorphology.

From Monday April 15th to Saturday 20th:

8 hours of activities per day:

- In the morning 2 lectures;
- In the afternoon a co-taught seminar by the two morning lecturers and project work activities.

SUBJECT	TEACHER	UNIVERSITY
Archaeobotany	Heiss Andreas G.	BOKU
Archaeometry	Montagnari Emanuela Zanini Franco	UniTS Sincrotrone TS
Project Management of Interdisciplinary Projects	Brusati Luca	Uni Udine
Developing Criteria for Decision Support System for Regional Authorities	Vacik Harald	BOKU
Virtual Representation of Natural Resources Data	Altobelli Alfredo	UniTS
Virtual Representation of Environmental-History Data	Hohensinner Severin	BOKU
Architecture and Urban Development	Marin Alessandra Marchigiani Elena	UniTS UniTS
Socio-economic Transition from an Agricultural to Industrial Society	Krausmann Fridolin	AA Klagenfurt
Methods of Integration: Environmental History	Haidvogel Gertrud	BOKU
Methods for Sustainable Revitalisation of Brown Fields as an Interdisciplinary Task	Kokot Krajnc Mojca	UniMaribor
Preservation of Cultural Heritage	Zanni Nicoletta Lazar Irena	UniTS Koper
Social and Economic History	Andreozzi Daniele Zilli Sergio	UniTS UniTS

Sunday 21st:

Scientific excursion to the Southern Isonzo Valley: Aquileia, old Roman fluvial town (archaeological park).

Topics: archeology and paleontology.

Monday 22nd:

Presentation of the results of the working groups.

Conclusions (end: 1:00 pm).

FACILITIES:

University of Trieste in Gorizia: <http://www.units.it/dove/mappe/gorizia/> (Google map)

How to get there: <http://www.turismoifvg.it/Information-about/How-to-get-there>

The DIANET International School facilities in Gorizia are fully accessible to disabled people.